

Place Value

Forms

Standard Form:

a number written only with digits.

Expanded Form:

a way to write a number that shows the place value of each digit.

ex. $463 = 400 + 60 + 3$

Word Form:

a number written only in words.

ex. four hundred sixty three

Unit Form:

writing a number and including the word form of its place value.

ex. 2,432, 243

2 million, 432 thousand, 243