

Feedback Rubric

Dimension	Exemplary	Proficient	Emerging	Novice
	The feedback was actionable and contained suggestions supported with examples.	The feedback was actionable and contained suggestions.	The feedback offered an overview of the information delivered.	The feedback offered was connected to the topic.
Structure	The feedback was direct, succinct and constructed with creativity:	The direct feedback was clear and to the point.	The feedback addressed the information presented.	The feedback offered limited connections to the topic discussed.
 Written	The well organized and neatly presented feedback contained complex sentences that included descriptive adjectives and academic vocabulary.	The feedback was composed with clear organization that contained complete and detailed sentences and was written neatly:	The legible feedback contained elements of organization and sentence structure with improvement in penmanship evident.	The submitted feedback was difficult to read, with little attempt to incorporate organization and sentence structure.
 Verbal	The feedback was delivered in a creative manner that enforced S.L.A.N.T. and employed the Presentation Rubric criteria.	The feedback was delivered in a focused manner that utilized S.L.A.N.T. and incorporated elements of the Presentation Rubric.	The feedback made attempts at utilizing S.L.A.N.T. and demonstrated subject knowledge.	The feedback was a comment or unorganized statements directed to the facilitator or peers.
Response Time	The feedback was provided during the course of the day for which the information was delivered.	The feedback was provided one day after the information was delivered.	The feedback was provided within one week of the information being delivered.	The feedback was provided more than a week after the information was delivered.

